MATCH ABANDONED - EVIDENCE REVIEW

Case: Malavuwe Great Movers vs. Tshamutilikwa Fire Boys

Date of Incident: 15 February 2026

Date of Submission: 23 March 2026

1. FACTS

Malavuwe Great Movers lodge a formal complaint against the SAFA Vhembe referee linked with Tshamutilikwa Fire Boys. SAFA rules clearly state that intervention before kick-off is permissible when there is a serious concern. Based on FIFA Laws of the Game (Law 5 - Referee Authority), the referee has full authority to enforce the law and control the game from before kick-off. Malavuwe Great Movers has fully complied with this regulatory requirement.

2. ARGUMENTS

A. Misleading of the Game of Law

Tshamutilikwa Fire Boys have misled game regulations by attempting to influence officials to participate in their matches in return for benefits. This conduct was observed directly by representatives of Malavuwe Great Movers, prompting our pre-kick-off intervention as required by regulations.

B. Required Investigation

The SAFA Disciplinary Committee must investigate Tshamutilikwa Fire Boys for systematic misleading of referees. Our records indicate formal complaints have been filed regarding referee influence in over 4 out of 10 matches (40% of cases). This pattern of conduct requires investigation before any decisions are made against Malavuwe Great Movers.

3. REQUESTED ACTION

We respectfully request that:

- The matter be investigated immediately regarding our pre-kick-off compliance with FIFA Law 5.
- Appropriate disciplinary action be taken against those found to have violated SAFA/FIFA regulations.
- The match be delayed or rescheduled until the issue is resolved.

4. LEGAL PRINCIPLES

This submission is grounded in FIFA Laws of the Game - Law 5, which grants the referee full authority to enforce the
